12th December 2016 RAC WA Sports Star Awards

Netball WA would like to congratulate Life Member Sue Neal after the Southern Districts Administrator and Netball WA Volunteer was bestowed the RAC Insurance Service to Sport Award at last night's WA Sports Star Awards.

Neal's significant contribution to the sport of netball was celebrated by a crowd of West Australia's sporting elite at the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre, alongside fellow winners Bruce Prance (diving) and Murray Hall (cycling).

In a volunteer career spanning more than three decades, Neal has served as a Coach, Umpire, Bench Official, Committee Member and Administrator from the grassroots level through to the Elite.

Netball WA President Deane Pieter's commended Neal on receiving the esteemed honour.

"As a collective netball community, we are extremely proud of Sue and all that she has achieved," Pieter's said.

"She epitomises all the qualities we desire in netball and is a wonderful example of the selfless and resolute attitude that has driven the growth of our sport."

"We are fortunate to count Sue as a most valued member of our game's family here in WA and certainly believe she is most worthy of this award."

Highlights from Neal's distinguished career include serving as a coach for the Southern Districts Association and South East Demons Region for eight and six years respectively, a Bench Official in both the ANZ Championship and 2015 Netball World Cup and President of Sapphires Netball Club (2003-2009) and Scorchers Netball Club (2014-present).

The RAC Insurance Service to Sport Award is the latest in a series of acknowledgements celebrating Neal's unwavering commitment to the game, including Life Membership of Netball WA and the Southern Districts Netball Association.
